

ProjectOne Engineering Handbook

Chapter 6 — FastAPI Architecture

Objective

FastAPI is the backend framework. Keep routing thin, business logic in services and persistence isolated.

Routers

Routers validate input, call services and return responses only.

Services

Services implement business rules and never depend on HTTP.

Dependency Injection

Use FastAPI dependency injection consistently.

Validation

Validate every external input using schemas.

Summary

Backend remains modular, testable and scalable.